Parrocchiale antica di San Salvatore

Category: Sacred Sites
business description: The parish church of San Salvatore, which overlooks a panoramic terraced churchyard, retains the original Romanesque structure and bell tower. The interior retains interesting fresco decoration, although most of it is fragmentary: the upper lunette of the last bay of the left nave depicts an Annunciation flanked by two saints, and the wall below features a frescoed polyptych dating to the late 15th century, the work of a follower of Giovanni Martino Spanzotti. Other contemporary fragments, but by a different artist, are found in the right nave.

The church is open on certain Sundays from 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM.
